Application for Emergency Financial Support

Students who, due to the stay at home order to prevent the spread of COVID 19, are unable to purchase study materials, daily necessities, or pay rent because of a decrease in part-time income or money sent from their parents can receive ¥30,000 from the Ehime University Fund.

(1) Target

As a general rule, undergraduate and graduate students who need emergency financial assistance due to a loss of income from parents (who pay for school expenses) or part-time job income due to the COVID 19 stay at home order.

However, the following persons are not eligible.

- Research students, part-time students, auditors, exchange students
- JSPS Special Research Fellows, MEXT scholarship students

In addition, the following persons may be excluded, depending on the overall application status.

- Those whose main purpose of a part-time job is recognized as other than for schooling or living expenses
- Those who are supported by a scholarship

(2) Payment amount

¥30,000 per person (planned)

(Based on the number of applicants, the number of recipients and times will be determined.)

(3) Payment period and method

After selection, the funds will be paid by bank transfer.

(4) Application method

Please fill out the form below and attach a copy of the required documents (photos are acceptable).

(Please do not bring or mail in paper form.)
